Overview

Bathroom designed as a showcase for the MosBuild 2021 Expo. The idea was to expend the bathroom experience beyond just one key water element. As a result we see water reflection on every possible surface including walls and ceiling amplified by color of sanitary ware. It all works just perfect with the rest of the key ingredient to this delicious dish.

Bathroom is a perfect marriage of mirrors, rusty undertones with deep navy blues grasping tropical mood, threading together all elements such as air, water, earth, fire and metal into relaxing home SPA.

Water dripping on the walls of the washing area repeating with the custom crystal drops on the ceiling proceed to the waterfall over bathtub by John Richard glorious pendant.

Scope of Work

Inspired by Tropical Island, our team have selected deep blue colour palette for the bathroom to recreate an elegant and tranquil tropical Paradise to relax in.

Textured linen fabrics, liquid metal, carefully chosen sanitaryware and decor made the bathroom blissfull Island SPA experience away from an island.

Result

Harmonious combination of organic shapes, refined materials and subtle textures, bringing serenity to this elegant bathroom.

Not only sophisticated color story, but completely new visual, physical and spiritual experience. Whilst we can not freely fly to the tropical Paradise why not try brining one home.

Bespoke tile feature wall reflecting fire from the fireplace and water ripples from the steel panels over bathtub with accent lighting creates not so simple but very elegant reading corner.

Water Element

1. To achieve a shimmering deep waters effect on the ceiling we selected a darker colour palette with The Alchemist by Finch-Color 546 "Pinot Noir to be" silk finish on custom decorative panels with goldfish.

2. Crystal drops reiterate the rain, so that you almost can here heavy drops symphony performance. Same does a signature John Richard pendant over the bathtub.

3. Bespoke Water Lily leaves and flower statement brass pendants made with delicate acrylic water drops linger the Pan Asian theme of koi fish lake. So the persona can soak not only body but soul into the relaxing tropical bliss.

Tropical Paradise

4. An ideal touch of escapism in this bathroom is provided by AFFRESCO hand painted wallpaper.

Striking panoramas of wallpapers blissfully coexist with beautiful bathroom fittings from The ART Ceram shown in deep blue.

5. Bold color of wallpaper panels menagerie in a dance with glass door design creating a rainforest oasis.

Fire and Earth

6. Delicate texture on the decorative Ornamita steel placed on wall by the bathtub ripples creates an opulent effect reflecting light makes it layered yet simple interior design scheme.
7. Rusty golden shimmer on the custom designed tiles done by Victoria Kiorsak Design Studio incorporate the colours and tones of the previous space of washing area seamlessly guide the design into reading nook by the fireplace.
8. Gorgeous artwork by Loktev Vlad on the noire dark wall with LeaCeramica tiles the whole theme is inspired of the opposition between petal wall and contrasting tiles like day and night, light and shadow, makes the washing room full of energy, dynamics, expression and emotion.

Reading nook

9. Detailed silver metal finish on the bespoke side table placed by the fireplace elegantly legged masterpiece.

10. This decorative curved armchair in de LeCuona linen to be placed by the fireplace. Liquid silk bespoke cushions define depth and pure comfort of the chair.

I personally work with many designers throughout my working process. This project is not my first work with Victoria but she always finds a way to surprise me with her perception of reality and stunning results.

I dare to say in Moscow she might be one of the most sought-after interior designers working internationally as she does projects round the globe. Her design studio was established over 18 years ago and continues to create unmatched luxury interior designs for the most demanding clients. I work with Victoria over years and must say I respect her artistic eye as well as a business leadership. Her design studio encompassing architectural design, interior design, project management, product design and property development and bespoke furniture as well.

An innate sense of style has defined Victoria's life and shaped her design philosophy. At the heart of her unique capabilities and exceptional performance are the core values of building lasting relationships in every spectrum of work operations, being flexible and adaptable in the face of new opportunities and challenges. And it is challenging work indeed being in Interior Design Business in Moscow.

Victoria works tirelessly in all her design pursuits. She is impressively hardworking person and not only has her Interior Design School she also teaches classes for the Russian Academy of Design. She also produces new artists.

I am grateful for this astonishing work and looking forward for our next projects with her.
